My artistic journey began at age five, when library art books became my first teachers. Though my career led me through industry and finance, I never stopped sketching, guided by my father's advice to keep art as a cherished pastime. Now, in retirement, I've returned to my creative roots as ROSC ART, the natural evolution of a lifetime spent learning to see. Inspired by the exquisite dishes of renowned chefs, I photograph and transform them into abstract art, creating a bridge between culinary mastery and contemporary art.

"Art is not what you see, but what you make others see."
— Edgar Degas
