When Luxembourg's haute cuisine becomes abstract art: ROSC ART at the 10th Konschtmoart of the Valentiny Foundation

Remerschen, 21 October 2026 — Artist Miriam Wilson, known as ROSC ART, will take part in the 10th edition of the Konschtmoart, the annual art market at the Valentiny Foundation in Remerschen, from Friday 13 to Sunday 15 November 2026. She will present a selection of abstract works created from the dishes of five Michelin-starred chefs in Luxembourg — a first public encounter between the country's starred gastronomy and contemporary abstract art.

FIVE STARRED CHEFS, FIVE UNIVERSES

ROSC ART's "Dish to Art" series reinterprets the signature dishes of:

- Cyril Molard (★★ Michelin) — Ma Langue Sourit, Moutfort
- Louis Linster (★★ Michelin) — Restaurant Louis Linster, Junglinster
- René Mathieu (★ Michelin, Green Star) — Fields
- Mathieu van Wetteren (★ Michelin) — Apdikt, Steinfort
- Kim de Dood (★ Michelin) — Lys

FROM PLATE TO ABSTRACT ARTWORK

ROSC ART starts from a simple conviction: great chefs are artists whose masterpieces disappear within minutes of their creation. Each work begins at the table: after living the culinary experience, the artist photographs each dish, then digitally deconstructs the images to extract their emotion — colour, texture, movement — and reinvents them as abstract compositions. This is not food photography, but a transformation that gives the ephemeral a permanent second life.

The works are produced as limited editions of five archival fine-art prints, presented under acrylic glass or on Dibond aluminium, with each subject also released as a unique original mixed-media acrylic canvas.

> "A starred dish lives only for the instant of a meal. My work gives it a second — permanent — life, and allows anyone to take home the memory of an extraordinary culinary moment." — Miriam Wilson, ROSC ART
